INSTALLATIONS: Chin-chi Army Barracks Area SW, Lan-chou MR, China

LOCATION: Chin-chi Army Barracks Area SW is on the northeast side of Ching-tung-hsia, 6.0 nautical miles (nm) southwest of Chin-chi.

GENERAL: The installation is on the Huang Ho (river) about 1.0 nm downstream from a dam and hydroelectric plant. Ching-tung-hsia appears to be predominantly a construction workers' town owing much of its existence to the construction of the dam and hydroelectric plant which are in the late stages of construction.

Chin-chi Barracks Area SW [ ] is 0.5 nm to the southwest, also in Ching-tung-hsia.

25X1

The wall-secured installation has been relatively unchanged since initial large-scale photography of [ ]

25X1

Barns at the rear of the installation suggest that the installation may have been a cavalry post. However, the animals observed could not be positively identified as horses. The method of handling and small numbers of animals observed suggest livestock or dairy cattle, probably for local consumption.

Accuracy Statement: [ ]

[ ] Conversion from square meters to square feet was determined by the factor: 1 square meter equals 10.76 square feet.
